

The University of Melbourne
Semester 2 Assessment, 2004

Department: Mathematics and Statistics

Subject Title: 620-374 Sampling and Forecasting

Exam Duration: Three hours

Reading Time: 15 minutes

This paper has ten (10) pages (including cover sheet).

Authorised material:

Hand-held electronic calculators may be used. A graphics or programmable calculator must have all memories and programs cleared.

Instructions to Invigilators:

Statistical tables will be provided.

Instructions to Students:

All questions may be attempted.

The number of marks for each question is indicated. This reflects the relative weighting of the questions.

The total number of marks available in this examination is 120.

Working and/or reasoning must be shown.

This paper is to be lodged with the Baillieu Library.