

Secretary's Report (AGM 2006)

Over the past year membership has decreased substantially, primarily due to completions. In the past year, there has been a substantial core of active members who attended many events and assisted in the organisation of the aforementioned events. Currently STAMP has fifty-two members, forty-four of whom are Mathematics and Statistics post-graduates. This change in membership will not affect funding levels from UMPA.